

I do not support your proposed changes for to allow further consolidation and concentration of media companies. It does not protect the public interest. Competition and a broad choice of true sources is the only way to protect ourselves. We have already seen the negative results in some of the cross media as they cross merchandise more than inform the public. It will result in either fewer points of view communicated or all news consolidated to sound bites.